MEMO SEGREGATION

Business Transaction: Memo Segregation

Version: 1.0

ISO Message Type: MT524 - Intra-Position Instruction

Memo Segregation allows you to create a memo position within your general free account to protect securities that your customers have paid for in full. Memo segregation is similar to segregation. However, whereas Segregation allows you to move only existing positions, Memo Segregation allows you to create memo-segregated positions within your free account, thus allowing you to protect anticipated, fully-paid-for customer securities.

INVESTMENT ID

Business Transaction: Investment ID

Version: 1.0

ISO Message Type: MT524 - Intra-Position Instruction

Investment Identification allows you to segregate securities for a Firm, Partner, or Omnibus account that were purchased for investment reasons. The securities are delivered from your general free account into your Investment Identification account. The Investment ID account is used for reporting information to the IRS about securities purchased for investment purposes.
